Ron Weiner of RDM Financial Group at HighTower Honored on Recent Barron's and Forbes' Top Advisor Rankings

Westport, Conn. – October 3, 2017 – RDM Financial Group at HighTower (RDM) is pleased to announce that Ron Weiner, CFP, Managing Director and Partner, has been recognized by two of the most highly regarded investment industry publications as a top advisor. For the eighth time, Weiner has been included on the highly-respected Barron's "Top 100 Independent Wealth Advisors" ranking, which was published earlier this month. More recently, for the second year in a row, Weiner has also been honored on Forbes' annual "America's Top Wealth Advisors" list.

"From inception almost 30 years ago, RDM was designed to be client-focused. Both Barron's and Forbes' acknowledgement is a testament to the collaborative work we do at RDM," Weiner says. "Being included on such prestigious lists of top wealth advisors in the U.S. is a true reflection of our passion, quality of work, forward thinking and singular dedication to our clients' financial well being. At RDM, we continually strive to deliver an unparalleled level of personalized service and support that our clients have grown to expect."

Each year, Barron's reviews thousands of independent wealth advisors based on a number of weighted factors such as assets managed, revenue produced and quality of practice.

In 2016, Forbes began reviewing thousands of advisors to publish a list of America's Top Wealth Advisors. A third-party research company reviews firms based on qualitative criteria through interviews and quantitative data such as revenue trends, assets under management, compliance records, industry experience and best practices within the industry.

"Our number one mission has always been to help our clients reach both their short and long-term financial goals," Weiner states. "Our clients' success is the paramount measure of our success."

Weiner has over 35 years of experience in the investment industry and has been sought after by top-tier media outlets, such as CNBC, The Wall Street Journal, US News & World Report, Investor's Business Daily and Fox Business News.
